Suluk Academy

Perhaps you have heard that there will be a new 2-year Suluk Academy training this fall at the Abode? Have you considered applying? You can find detailed information and application materials online at www.sulukacademy.org.

“Suluk Academy is the richest, most fertile soil in which to grow the seeds of self-knowledge, Divine Friendships, and the type of Love which never dies.”
— Suluk graduate, Shama Class, 2013

What is Suluk Academy?

Suluk Academy offers an in-depth study of the teachings of the Esoteric School of the Sufi Order International for initiates in the Hazrati Orders. Throughout the two years, participants are guided through progressive stages of spiritual development, with a curriculum drawing upon Inayat Khan’s teachings as well as traditional Sufi methods and practices. The ultimate purpose of this training is to support the natural unfoldment of the soul in life, culminating in deepened realization and the experience of awaking to the reality of the unity of being.

“We cannot help being travelers...but we can choose the course we chart, and direct each footstep with precision toward the object of our truest desire. To follow the trail blazed by the Prophets in the company of mutually dedicated fellow travelers is the meaning of Suluk.”
— Pir Zia Inayat-Khan

Who should apply?

Those who wish to go more deeply into the works of Hazrat Inayat Khan, cultivate the inner life, gather with like-minded seekers, or study with Pir Zia Inayat-Khan and other senior teachers including Aziza Scott (Massachusetts), Gayan Macher (California), Kainat Sharifa Norton (NYC), and Suhrawardi Gebel (Massachusetts/Colorado).
